MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Personnel

FROM:

SUBJECT: House Post Office/Civil Service Hearing
on Retirement: CIA Participation

1. On 25 April, the House Post Office/Civil Service Committee hearing on the retirement needs for special employee groups will begin at 1000 in Room 311 Cannon. I have scheduled a van to depart Headquarters at 0900. I anticipate the hearing will adjourn at around 1200.

2. The tentative hearing schedule is as follows:

GAO Representative to discuss GAO/GGD-85-22:
"Options to Consider for Certain Employee
Groups in Designing the New Civil Service
Retirement Program"

Panel: Herman J. Cohen, Dept. of State
Acting Director General of the Foreign Service and Director of Personnel

Robert W. Magee, CIA
Director of Personnel

Note: I have arranged with the staff for you to read your statement after Cohen reads his, then the Members will pose questions to the two of you.

Panel: Federal Bureau of Investigation
William H. Webster (or his deputy)

Federal Aviation Administration

Panel of Employee Groups (American Foreign Service Association, Firefighters and Air Traffic Controllers)

3. I explained to the staff that we could not submit a statement in advance because of our ongoing discussions with OMB. The staff understands the dilemma

STAT

5. It is highly unlikely that there will be any TV coverage. It appears that only Donald Devine (or maybe it's his cigar) attracts the cameras to the Civil Service Committees. If I learn otherwise, I will alert you and CRS media.
